Editorial Review

From the Back Cover

As romantic feelings for her boyfriend get too strong, Payton is confused about what to do.

PAYTON SKKY has everything a high school senior would want--popularity, well-to-do parents, and excellent grades. To top that off, she dates the most sought after boy in her school, Dakari Graham. However, when Dakari puts on the pressure to take their relationship to the next level, Payton goes numb.

Though she dreads the thought of not honoring God in her dating relationship, she also does not want to lose her man. Torn between what her soul believes and what her heart wants, she struggles to make the best decision. Will her choice...be the right one?
