Do your kids hate to take a bath?

Do your kids like to play in the mud?

“Lee doesn’t Like Soap” tells the story of a very stubborn little boy who learns the hard way that baths are very important. Lee loves to play in the mud and get dirty, but he does not like to get clean. He and all of the townspeople are forced to deal with the consequences of Lee’s actions when he refuses to take a bath. Lee learns that a bath is an important part of growing up healthy and strong and he promises the doctor that he will always use soap from now on. This story provides a good way for parents and children to talk about the importance of good hygiene and can also be used as a good tool by public health professionals. It is a great story for bedtime and can be read to the whole family. A terrific choice for early readers!
