Essential Parenting, Revitalizing and Remoralizing the Family in the 21st Century By Domenick J. Maglio Phd, Julie Maglio

The time has arrived for the book: ESSENTIAL PARENTING: REVITALIZING AND REMORALIZING THE FAMILY IN THE 21ST CENTURY. This book repudiates the past 40 years of child rearing practices and returns parents to time-tested, universal traditional values that guide individuals to a fulfilling life and lead a nation to greatness

Modern parents are confused and frustrated with child rearing advice that sounds good on paper but results in self-centered, irresponsible, disrespectful, incompetent and often angry children. These children are unwilling or unable to make the necessary transition to adulthood.

The time has arrived where thoughtful adults realize that only through establishing well functioning families can we stop western civilizations moral decline that has produced rampant illegitimacy, drug dependency, mental illness especially in our children, divorce, purposelessness and lack of spirituality in a time of great material prosperity. The authors were surprised and impressed that modern day ESSENTIAL PARENTING is firmly rooted in the ancient teachings of the Bible. It was not until the book was substantially formed and quotes were needed to highlight the chapters that the authors found the best quotes which paralleled their work were found in the Bible. It makes all the sense in the world since the Bible is a composite of the truth passed down to us from our ancestors. This book may not have begun following the teachings of the Bible, but by observing what truly works with parenting, it wound up at the doorstep of Bible teachings.

Through concrete step-by-step training in loving, obedience, respectfulness, critical thinking, independence, honesty, reality, pain tolerance, empathy, will power, toileting and creativity development adults are led out of the confusion of our present conflicted psychobabble that does not work and are led back to the lost art and knowledge of child rearing. Specific charts demonstrate the difference between ESSENTIAL PARENTING and Modern Confused Parents making a precise distinction between the two methods of child rearing.

Disciplining children at home, in the classroom and in the community at large is described in detail in the encompassing concept of Purposeful Discipline. Parameters, limits and expectations are explained as well as ten categories of consequences with examples of how and why to use them.

This comprehensive and systematic approach of Purposeful Discipline is a powerful tool to prevent tantrums, disrespect, irresponsibility, ADHD, and return manners, respect, responsibility and mental health to our homes, schools and communities. " The Parental Observation-Indication-Strategization-Evaluation (POISE) Process", "Quantity Time", "The Wrap" and "Just Right Moral Consequences" are concisely introduced to the reader. These concepts equip parents with the necessary tools to regain control and regain their rightful and necessary place as the head of the family.

ESSENTIAL PARENTING presents the nuts and bolts in an easy-to-follow format to help parents evaluate and improve their parenting skills. It is a book that should be given to all new parents to help them realize the importance of their sacred parenting role.:

Editorial Review

Review
"I totally agree with this child rearing philosophy." Mrs. M. mother of 4 year old girl. -- Wider Horizons Press

About the Author
Dr. and Mrs. Maglio have seventy combined years in the education/psychology area. Their experiences have included: teaching and directing in public and private schools, including preschool, elementary, junior high, senior high and the university level. They have also developed schools in the jungle of Peru as Peace Corps volunteers. Dr. Maglio's professional career has ranged from counselor at Wiltwyck School for Boys, school psychologist, nine years at the university level in psychological/educational departments, clinical psychologist in a Florida state prison, Certified Reality Therapist, ten years directing a domestic violence counseling program, psychotherapist for over twenty five years as a licensed mental health counselor, director for the Open Door for Mental Health Program, staff psychologist at the Eckerd Foundation as well as serving on the Board of Directors of the National Independent Private School Association. In addition, since 1983, Dr. and Mrs. Maglio have owned and directed Wider Horizons School, a private K-12 college preparatory school. The Maglio family was fortunate to have Mrs. Maglio be a stay-at-home mother for the first ten years of the children's lives.

Dr. and Mrs. Maglio began their college careers at SUNY at New Paltz, a bastion of liberal education during the beginning of the anti-establishment "hippie" movement of the 1960's. Their Peace Corps experience, as well as Dr. Maglio's M.A. degree from the University of Connecticut, and doctoral degree from Union Institute testify to the depth of their exposure to core liberal and socialistic ideals. As with most idealistic youth, the Maglios charged out to change the world only to find out the world was far different from the "ivory tower" the professors led them to believe. The Maglios learned from colleagues in the field but more importantly, from their own children, students and clients. It was through their first hand experience with real situations that the principles and tenets of ESSENTIAL PARENTING began to emerge. The Maglio's have had many professional successes, but are most proud of having raised four highly successful, independent-thinking children to adulthood.

"The abdication of the traditional parental role by the modern-confused parent has led to children who think and feel they are and really appear to be in control of their families. For a family to function properly, parents, not children, need to be in charge."

"The practice of labeling young children is a destructive and irresponsible act that takes the responsibility of poor child rearing from the parents and instead places the blame on the child."

"The epidemic of childhood mental disorders in the United States is directly due to poor parenting."

"The younger the child the more effective are intimidating consequences such as slapping the hand or the behind while the older the child the more counter productive is physical intimidation."

"It takes committed, dedicated parents, not a village to raise a child." "No longer can disciplining a child be considered abusive but should be lauded as essential to the loving of a child."

"The full range of consequences: rewarding and punishing, needs to be used."

"Quantity time is a rationalization for moving away from your children. Quantity Time needs to replace quality time to establish good, strong family ties."

"Instead of teaching the concept "no" parents have been inundated by psychobabble to reinforce the child's positive behavior and ignore the unacceptable behavior."

"Fear is the best motivational tool parents have in their arsenal." "Pain is a reality of life that should be embraced not shunned in creating the whole child. Rampant materialism does not promote the coping skills necessary in life. Delayed gratification is essential in creating a well functioning child."

"Through training parents are responsible for moving the child from his natural state of self interest to a higher level of social interest." "Calibrated guilt is essential in creating a conscience and thus a moral child."

GUIDING PRINCIPLES

TRADITIONAL FAMILY IS THE BASIC UNIT OF SOCIETY Any attempt to replace the family with a government unit has historically failed, preceding the decline and eventual collapse of the society.

PURPOSEFUL DISCIPLINE is the intentional teaching or training a more accomplished person gives to another to help them on their journey through life. It is a demonstration of love. QUANTITY TIME is the length of time parents spend with their child. The greater the quantity of time the more the parents have the opportunity to share experiences and exploit the moment in order to maximize the overall positive ESSENTIAL PARENTING impact on the child.

ASAN means ESSENTIAL PARENTING should start As Soon As Needed. At the first sign of inappropriate behavior the parent initiates training.

POISE Parental Observation-Indication-Strategization-Evaluation is an on going process by which parents gain assurance and poise in their interactions with the child. Through observing the child's behavioral reactions, the parents can individualize consequences for their child.

LEAST RESTRICTIVE YET EFFECTIVE CONSEQUENCE means ESSENTIAL PARENTING uses the minimal consequence that gets the desired result.

MODERATION AND BALANCED CONSEQUENCES are reasonable and measured responses to an individual behavior that attempts to remain in the middle of the continuum from ignoring to abuse.

JUST RIGHT MORAL CONSEQUENCE is an individualized approach in judiciously choosing the morally correct and meaningful consequences for a specific child's actions or expressed thoughts in a particular situation.

INCREMENTAL AUTONOMY THROUGH EARNED PRIVILEGES As the child demonstrates constructive behavior he is gradually given greater privileges until he becomes independent.

DO NOT LABEL, INSTEAD TEACH COMPENSATION Compensation is a process by which a person who is unable to resolve a problem using a common approach employs effort, ingenuity and perseverance to overcome an obstacle rather than surrender to the problem. Labeling is a counter productive process that gives the child a built-in rationalization for accepting his own limitations and creating a victimized, "can't do" attitude.
