The One Left Behind By Lena Nicole

Colin Miller had it all until a drunk driver changed that for him. While he's able to walk away with minor injuries, his fiancé is left in a coma. All Colin wants is for her to wake up, nothing else matters.

Addison Ramsey remembers nothing. As she stares at the handsome man holding her hand, she feels nothing. With Colin's heartbreaking, they must rebuild their lives as if the last year never happened.

Will Colin be able to show Addison how much they loved each other or will Addison be lost to him forever?

Editorial Review

About the Author
Jaime Nicole Whitley is an Army wife and stay at home mom to her wonderful son Aiden and daughter Peyton, who has a passion for music, reading, NASCAR and football season. She grew up in New Jersey and lived in Las Vegas for a couple years working as a medical assistant before meeting her husband. While following his career, she ended up in North Carolina. Along with her two children Jaime also has a furbaby who is a mixed lab. When she met Lena, she was so excited to share the same passion for books with her and jumped at the chance to write her own novel with a little encouragement from her husband.

Rachael Lena Duncan is an Army wife to her amazing husband, Steven, and mother to their beautiful daughter's, Natalie, and Zoe. She grew up in Nashville, Tennessee and went off to graduate from the University of Tennessee with a bachelor's degree in political science. She once had dreams of being in politics and working behind the scenes as a political advisor. After working on Capitol Hill for a short time, she realized that wasn't for her. She always enjoyed writing and wanted to find a way to use that while moving from state to state with her husband's career. Fortunately, she met Nicole and was able to embark on this amazing journey with her.
