Editorial Review

About the Author
James is a preacher, teacher and encourager in God's word. When James received Christ as his Lord and Savior, he had what is referred to as a "Damascus Road" experience. The Lord clearly spoke to him and revealed his call to the ministry. With the heart of a Revivalist. James has a strong passion for the Lord and to see people draw closer to the Lord so that they may experience all that the Lord has for them, both now and for eternity. James, together with his wife Wendy, has had the privilege of pastoring churches in both Canada and the United States. He has also had the opportunity of speaking and teaching overseas. In addition, James has had many years of experience in the business world. He began his business career as a young teenager. Before he became a minister for the Lord he was heavily involved in various start-up businesses. At one point he was running five successful businesses at the same time and during his Bible College days he started two service type businesses. Because James loves to help others, he has had the privilege of helping many people start and successfully run their own profitable businesses, train their employees and work with professionals and executives in every area of their business life. James loves to write about many aspects of the Christian Faith, as well as various topics dealing with business. Besides being a writer, James also acts as a publisher helping other authors get their books prepared, formatted and published.
