Zeke (The Powers That Be Book 2) By Harper Bentley

Zeke Powers should've come with a warning label.

He was hot.

He was sexy.

And he was a bad boy through and through.

The things he said to me had me blushing and my toes curling.

But he was someone I totally didn't need walking into my life, screwing up the plans I'd made and turning my world upside down.

Although I'd been living a no-frills, no-fun existence, I felt it was necessary to get where I was going. Keep your eye on the prize and all that.

But Zeke was determined to prove to me that what I desired most—him—was just what I needed.

New adult. Not recommended for readers under 17.
