Untitled 12: In english By Kaur Kender

UNTITLED 12 is Kaur Kender's 12th book. Scratching, cruel, relentless, ruthless satire of Eastern European fascist porn addicted society, where rich ethnical Estonians can do whatever they please to whomever they want. Published in Estonia in 2014 UNTITLED 12 quickly became the most notorious and controversial literary work ever written in Estonian. Transgressive and horrific, it never pretends to offer more than the detached surgical observation of sick characters in the cynical, cold, hopeless world. Enjoy the tour in hell known as Eastern Europe.

Editorial Review

About the Author
Kaur Kender is an ad-man become writer become revolutionary. De Sade of Estonia, Marat of Kopli, bane of microfascists and well-meaning gentle people everywhere. Born on the same day as Dashiell Hammett he shares the American’s hard boiled sensitivities and a bad case of from the dark side to our side. Kender quit his short study of semiotics and became an advertising executive, working in venture capital. Back in web 1.0 days he pushed e-commerce projects and formed a frankly unsettling relationship with the political elites of his country, Estonia: an obscure, noirish place in Eastern Europe. Like Hammett got alienated bullying workers for Pinkerton, Kender’s years of shit-peddling turned him into a provocative writer, then a full on citizen activist. Last three years he’s been busting out gonzo journalism moves from writing a public letter to Russia’s éminence grise Vladislav Surkov to posting sexy, shirtless pictures of Stalin online. He is the unlikely foremost speaker against Estonia’s apartheid-like state structure, war on drugs, HIV epidemic and fentanyl deaths. A member of the vilified ZA/UM movement, his platvorm of choice is the web 2.0 unique Nihilist.fm of which he is chief editor.
