Mary Elizabeth has agreed to become a slave to Master Devlin but as time passes, she starts to question her decision. She expected things to get better as time went by, but his treatment of her becomes worse. He loans her out to his friends without her consent, and when she questions him about it, she is disciplined. When she thinks things can't possibly get worse, he decides to loan her to a friend, El-Hashem for a two month period. She knows she can't let this happen so she takes the first chance she gets to escape. Will she get away from Master Devlin and his friends or will her escape be short lived? Is there another way for her to get out of this hell that is her life? Will she have a Prince come to her rescue? Or is she doomed to suffer the rest of her life?
