Editorial Review

Review

"[Field Guide to Peppers] is undeniably attractive even at first glance, with bold and colorful cover art. A quick skim through the book heightens the appeal, bright red pages and accents complementing full-color photos of all 400 peppers. . . . a beautiful and informative work." —NYBG's *Plant Talk

"Home gardeners as well as avid chili heads will appreciate the vast quantity of peppers covered and the visual and plant growth habits presented in this guide." —Library Journal

"The entries include a full-color photograph of the mature pepper plant, along with details such as cultivar name, origin, plant height, days to harvest, and heat level. There is also a sentence or two of trivia about the plant and what each particular pepper is commonly used for." —Booklist

"As beautiful to look at as it is useful. . . . In addition to being a tool for pepper identification, the guide provides expert advice on how to choose the best chile for your garden. . . . This book is a wonderful resource for pepper enthusiasts and home gardeners alike." —Chile Pepper Magazine
